To Whom It May Concern:

Janus & Hill Corporation has worked with Fastrac Electric Corporation on numerous projects over the past ten years. Fastrac has always completed the electrical work on our projects in a highly professional and timely manner, and our working relationship has been outstanding. Their work has always conformed to the project specifications, and they maintain the highest level of quality control throughout the project.

Fastrac is an outstanding electrical contractor, and I hope to continue working with them in the future. I am proud to give my highest recommendation to Fastrac Electric Corporation.

Sincerely,

JANUS & HILL CORPORATION

Gregg A. Hill

Vice President / Senior Project Manager
